Part lists

- USB Hub
- SD Card
- Genie Programmer

Tools required for installation, socket sizes & whatnot.

- Light Source
- Pry Tool
- Flathead Screwdriver

Skill Level: 1

Time Investment: 1 hour

Step 1: Before we begin the install, double check your QR code in the driver's door well with your phone's camera to make sure you have the option code IOS and check for MCR option code.

IOS is needed to upgrade the vehicle to navigation.

MCR is needed so you know if you need to request a new USB hub with SD card slot.

Step 2: You'll notice in our example vehicle in the install video only had the option code IOS, thus the upgrade will work but we need to install a new USB hub with an SD card on it. SD card is needed for map data contained on a SD card.

Step 3: Now you have double-checked the option codes on the vehicle. Let's start the install of the USB hub. Grab your pry tool and gently pop out the factory USB hub from the lower center dash. There are two tabs on the left and right of the factory USB hub to push in for it to release.

Step 4: Pull the factory USB hub out enough to disconnect the two connections at its rear.

Step 5: Plug in the new USB hub with the SD card slot. Plug in both connections.

Step 6: Slide the new USB hub into the factory position.

Step 7: Time to use the genie to program the vehicle for the new upgrade.

I. Put vehicle into the run position.

II. Wait 1 minute after putting the vehicle into run to plug in the genie programmer.

III. The genie once plugged in will flash blue as it tries to program.

IV. The genie will turn a solid green light once programming was completed successfully, programming can take 1-3 minutes long.

V. Remove the genie and give the vehicle a sleep cycle.

VI. Test out your new upgrade.

VII. Enjoy!

Step 8: Once programming is done and you give the vehicle a sleep cycle. You should see the Navigation icon on the radio screen. Hit it and accept the multiple requests from the radio.

Step 9: After you hit Yes to all pop ups, the navigation will start.

Step 10: Start a route, and the navigation will route you to your entered location.

Step 11: If you have a compatible cluster in the vehicle, the navigation will display on the cluster's screen for better guidance.

Things To Know
